

GFWC Jennie Award

(Named for GFWC Founder, Jane Cunningham Croly)

Deadline for Nominations Extended – August 1, 2009

GFWC Jennie Award recognizes one clubwoman from each of the 8 GFWC Regions for outstanding commitment to club, community, and family

Who in your club deserves to be honored with this prestigious award?

Contest Rules Highlights*

- Each club may nominate one member
- Nominations should emphasize the member's lifetime of service
- Complete nomination form with a maximum of 500-word narrative with descriptions of club activities, community involvement and commitment to nuclear or extended family
- 5 X 7" photo of nominee
- 2-3 newspaper articles describing successful projects in which the member contributed
- Letter of recommendation from the Club President
- Letter of recommendation from a representative of another organization
- Deadline for submission of nomination with supporting materials must be sent to NJSFWC President, Anne H. Redlus, and be postmarked no later than August 1, 2009

*Complete set of the Contest Rules, including the Nomination Form and the Judging Criteria, can be found in the GFWC Club Manual under the Special Projects tab.

Region winners will be awarded roundtrip transportation to the 2010 GFWC Annual International Convention, a Medal of Honor and special certificate.

*All questions should be directed to:
Patty Whitehouse, NJSFWC First Vice President
pwhitehouse@njsfwc.org*